

XM Radio is a valuable and vital addition to the airwaves. The NAB has no business opposing it. XM Radio provides hours of pleasurable listening and interesting and useful information that are frequently not available anywhere else. I respectfully urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160.